

Mrs. Osie Bell Coley

September 15, 1943 - December 25, 2017

Osie Bell Bessie Mae Coley, affectionately known as “Bell,” was born on September 15, 1943 in Spring Garden, Alabama. She was the fifth child born of eight children in the union of Foster Gordon Glenn and Lola Ernestine Glenn. She had three sisters, twins Martha and Margaret, and Christine, two brothers, Bobby Joe and Johnnie (who preceded her in death), living siblings, Grimmet Lee and Jannie Louise.

Osie was baptized in Alabama at an early age. She moved to Detroit, Michigan from her hometown, Piedmont, Alabama, in 1969.

Osie later met the love of her life, Charlie Robert Coley, and they got married on January 9, 1977 until April 24, 2010, he preceded her in death.

She worked for Cadillac Motor Company for many years as a retired worker. Osie was a loving and supporting mother and friend to her only child Mary Louise Johnson and her two stepdaughters, Victoria Turner and Valerie Perkins.

Osie was given her wings on December 25, 2017 where she was welcomed into heaven’s gates with open arms.
