Going Home Celebration For Mr. Otto Pittmon Brown, "Mr. B":

Otto Pittmon Brown was born on January 3, 1927 in Selma, Alabama to the late Eli Brown and Annie Hatcher-Brown. Otto was the ninth of seventeen brothers and sisters.

Otto was baptized at a young age at Sister Spring Baptist Church, Selma, Alabama. Otto also served time in the United States Army and later relocated to Detroit, Michigan. It is in Detroit that he met and married the love of his life Brazell and to this union the Lord blessed them with two children, Cynthia and Keith. Otto joined Greater St. Peters AME Zion Church in Detroit where he served as deacon, trustee and usher for over 60 years.

Otto retired from General Motors after 30 plus years of dedicated service. He was timely and worked hard and he was a wonderful provider to his wife and children. He would always say, "You can never be too early but you can be too late!"

He was also loved by his extended family. He was a great brother and an amazing uncle. Many of his nieces and nephews called him the favorite and he in turn called them "Rookies" and that they had "Small heads!" He set the foundation for a family that loved the Lord and loved each other. His spirit and legacy will continue to influence the Brown/Hatcher family for many years to come.

Otto entered his eternal home on January 13, 2017. Preceding Otto in death was his beloved son Keith Brown.

“ Cynthia, Shawny and family!
You have my sincere condolences! Mr Brown was the perfect neighbor. He not only kept his yard well manicured, he'd step out and manicure two or three other neighbors. He will be greatly missed. Absent from the body, present with the Lord!
