

Mr. Oz Austin

July 12, 1945 - August 19, 2016

Going Home Celebration For Oz Austin:

Oz Austin was the fifth child and the second son of the late Dolphus and Annie Lee Austin. He was born on July 12, 1945 in Grady, Arkansas.

Oz was baptized at an early age in Round Lake, Arkansas as a member of Damascus Missionary Church, where he served as an usher on the usher board.

He was educated in the Grady Public Schools system. He made a new life in Detroit, Michigan in March 1969, and started at Ford on March 31, 1969.

In April, he met the love of his life, Madiline Armstead and was joined in holy matrimony on May 2, 1970, married 46 years. He retired from Ford in January 2001.

Oz loved to fish and do landscaping which was his relaxation. Oz was a loving and very wise man. He had a great impact on the lives he touched. He will be deeply missed.
