

Mrs. Ozie Mae Reynolds

November 19, 1945 - November 3, 2014

In Loving Memory Of Ozie Mae Reynolds:

was born November 19, 1945 to Obie and Siller Frailey in Harrison, Georgia.

Ozie professed Christ at an early age being baptized at the Springfield Baptist Church in Sandersville, GA.

In 1964, a very eventful year for Ozie who graduated from Thomas J. Elder High School where she met and married Jessie Reynolds in September, and in December they were blessed with their only son Stacy.

Ozie and her family moved to Detroit, MI in July of 1972, where she became a member of the Banks Triumph Missionary Baptist Church. In August she was hired by the General Motors Automotive Company where she worked on the line for a time then moved to sewing seat covers. Ozie was the one that everyone confided in, telling her all of their highs, their lows, and their in between. She was a friend to many.

Ozie enjoyed sharing her southern style cooking with family and friends. Easter and Thanksgiving were the holidays that you would be sure to receive a feast.

“ To The Reynolds Family,

It saddens me to read about Ozie Mae's passing. Something that helps me when my loved ones died is the hope found in the bible. It assures us God is near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. We read about this at Psalm 34:18. More than anything else, a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. I hope you find comfort in these words.

“ Ozie and I have been friends since we were little girls. We started elementary school together and graduated high school together. We have been in each others lives since we can remember and shared memories from childhood until her transition. We spoke on the phone often and kept up with each others lives. I have visited her in Detroit and she has visited me in Tampa, Florida. I will truly miss this forever friendship. My thoughts and prayers to her family members. May they go through this time cherishing her memories. Stay prayerful and stay strong in the Lord.
