

Mrs. Pamela Sue Shahid

September 26, 1948 - April 9, 2014

Pamela Sue Shahid, was born in Detroit, Michigan on September 26, 1948 to the union of Mildred and Jimmie Staples. Pam was the youngest of five children. Her sister Doris Ann Redd (Runyon) and her best friend Helen “Bonnie” Benjamin all preceded her in death.

Pam attained her education in the Detroit Public Schools system and graduated from Chadsey High School in 1966. She later attended Virginia Farrell Beauty School in Detroit, Michigan where she received a license in cosmetology.

Pam accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Greater St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church in Detroit, Michigan under the pastorate of the late Pastor Elmer D. Kirby. She loved serving the Lord, being at church, and singing in the choir.

Pam was the proud mother of three children she loved and adored, Lynney, Recio and Mildred Mercedes, all of Detroit, Michigan.

Pam met the love of her life, Hakim Shahid and they were married on September 26, 1998. Out of this union Pam inherited six children that she loved like her own.

Pam was a loyal worker for General Motors Corporation and retired after 30 years.

Pam was the sweetest person, beautiful inside and out. She was a happy, fun-loving person who loved being around people, and would do anything she could to lift someone's spirit. She loved singing and had an amazing voice, and was a great dancer as well. Pam enjoyed traveling, shopping, photography, and talking on the phone with family and friends. Pam was a rummage sale connoisseur and owned a resale boutique called Paloma's Closet and was also a notary public, and possessed many more skills.

Pam will be missed so much but never, ever forgotten, a wonderful blessing from the Lord.

“ Our condolences to the Shahid & Staples family.

My Godmother Pam.....words can't describe what I'm feeling right now. I will miss you beautiful lady! I will miss our long conversations, your encouragement of keeping my immediate family close, and just your overall beautiful spirit. You touched mine and my children's lives in such a positive way. When my mom; your sister (Bonnie) passed away over a year and half ago, you stepped right into the role of my mom just as she wanted you to. Now that you are resting peacefully with my mom, I have you both watching over me and my children. Rest peacefully!

*Love always,

“ I will miss my stepmother so much and will love her always. I will miss her voice, her smile, her laugh, her singing and how beautiful she was inside and out. I have learned from her on how to treat people, including enemies. She will be forever missed.
