“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ I send condolences to the family at this time of loss. Our heavenly father has promised that he will “be near to those crushed in spirit and to those broken at heart he saves” (Psalms 34:18) May you find comfort in the scriptural words “He will swallow up death forever and the Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces” (Isaiah 25:8) We know that our future prospects are wonderful and that we will see our dear loved ones again##imported-begin##Jeanne##imported-end##

“ Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our loved ones. My heart and deepest condolence goes out to the Adams family. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that done good, unto the resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. May you find comfort through the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Adams family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Please accept this letter of sympathy over your dear loved one, Joseph Edward Adams. We know that Mr. Adams was a religious man so he would no doubt agree with the bible's hope that I share at (Rev 21:3,4) . Soon there will be no more death, tears or pain and you will be able to see Mr. Adams again in a healthy state. I know that you are hurting so I wanted to share with you something I found encouraging when I lost my granddad.##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##

“ Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one. I am writing to share with you the marvelous hope that the bible holds out for a future resurrection. The bible's clear teaching removes all confusion about what happens to us at death. A God of love does not use death to separate families. The scriptures plainly show that death is the last "enemy" that will be destroyed by God (please read 1 Corinthians 15:26). May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
