

Ms. Patricia Ann Hadley

February 1, 1949 - February 25, 2014

The Life Of Patricia A. Hadley:

Patricia Ann Hadley was born to Willie D. Hadley (deceased) and Virginia L. Hadley (deceased), on February 1, 1949 in Carthage, Mississippi. She was the eldest of nine children; Nora Mae, Imogene, Willie James, Martha Lucille, Sylvia, Rochelle, Randolph and Claudia Maria. Upon her father's and youngest sister's untimely death, she would become a second mother to her siblings and they respected her as such.

She received her education in Mount Clemens and Detroit, Michigan and excelled in English. She graduated from Northern High School in 1967. It was also in Mount Clemens where she accepted Christ into her life as her personal savior at The Church of the Living God.

Pat was a loving and caring mother. She was grateful to God for the birth of her son, Fran e DeShawn Hadley Sr. Because of her love and commitment to family she would open her heart and home to her sister Sylvia's four children, shortly before her death in 1985.

She was employed with Kroger Grocery Store for 45 years. Pat was looking forward to her retirement on March 28, 2014. She was making plans to do the things that brought her pleasure and happiness; attending church, reading her bible, spending time with family, traveling and baking.

Her faith in God was the foundation of her life. She was proud, kind, caring, giving and industrious. She found great satisfaction in raising funds for various charities and feeding the less fortunate. Her stewardship and good deeds were recognized with many awards.

“ I thank God for the opportunity for me to say, " I LOVE YOU and I WILL PRAY FOR YOU." Our last conversation was filled with; love, laughter, hope, concerns, and plans.... I will miss her call, her voice and her laughter. I can not imagine my life without my mother. Love, KITA

“ Aunt Pat, I realize that you were a Gift given to us and I appreciate God for the time you were here in our lives, Yes, It hurts knowing you are no longer here in the earth rim, but I rejoice that you no longer have to walk by faith, but now you see Jesus in his fullness. You may be absent from the body, but you are present with the lord....you were a Blessing!

“ *Cousin Patricia,
You will always be remembered as the person who held it together, no matter what hurdles or obstacles you faced. You believed that a better day was on the horizon.! I admired that tenacity about you.
"Never give up"!!! Never quit!!!! So now you are in a better place!!!!
No more struggling, no more pain,..... You will be missed!!!!*
