“ Dear Pat, you are with the Lord and you're not suffering or worrying anymore. It's a true statement when people say blood doesn't necessarily make you blood. We became family many years ago through our church, Universal Spiritual Temple of Peace..We all laughed together, worshipped together and loved each other, without finding fault with each other. .Our church family loved each other with a genuine love thru the years..Many links in our family have been broken, but one day they will link again. .be strong family and you're forever in my prayers. .Rest in Paradise Pat

“ The last time I seen Ms.Pat was about a month ago and we were watching lifetime and t.i. and tiny, she was sitting at the table and running me back and forth to the kitchen because her feet were hurting. She always made me feel welcomed and accepted me and my daughter and treated us like we were family. She was very sweet and always talking to me about life and being a mother and how she appreciated me being their and helping out her grandson. I appreciated all the advice and the talks we had whenever we encountered one another. I am sorry for the loss of this great woman, I pray for you all. May you Rest in Peace Ms.Pat.

“ My condolences to the family. No one is ever totally prepared for the death of a loved one. When death strikes the pain and grief can be intense, may you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you.-Psalms 55:22

“ The bible gives us words of comfort to endure the pain in our hearts. Trust in our Grand Creator with all your heart – Even Jesus said, I am the resurrection and life, he that exercise faith in me will come to life. . . John 11:25, Isaiah 41:10 & 13 and 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14.
