

Mr. Patrick Fimbar Khan

September 24, 1956 - May 15, 2013

Patrick Fimbar Khan was born on September 24, 1956 at the Port of Spain General Hospital in Trinidad. He was the firstborn to Monica Ligertwood Berment (deceased) and was raised by his stepfather Oswald Berment (deceased). His biological father was Yacoub Khan (deceased). He has three brothers named Eric, David, and Vincent. They all grew up in a small village in the Borough of Arima at Samaroo Village.

Patrick attended Malabar Roman Catholic school from 1963-1971. After leaving school he attended Hinds High School in Arima from 1971-1974. Patrick's family left Arima and went to live in Tunapuna from 1975-1982.

Patrick joined the Trinidad and Tobago Prison Service and was enlisted as a Prison Officer from 1980-1990. While working in the prison, Patrick taught youths how to make bird baths, concrete tables, and concrete seats. He also taught basket weaving. Patrick loved tailoring and was a good welder and fabricator. Patrick loved Calypso music. His love of the music led him to sing during Carnival season at tents. His stage name was "Walking Tall." Patrick resigned from the Prison Service in 1990 and moved to the USA to live and open his own business in Detroit, MI. The business was named after him "Pat's Bumpers Sales & Service."

While living in Detroit he met and married Rona Taylor on September 7, 1996 and had (three) beautiful children named Chanel, Aaron, and Monica. He also has an older son named Roger who lives in Brooklyn, NY.

In 2005, Patrick closed his bumper business and worked as a boilermaker for Local 169. In 2006, Patrick produced a Calypso CD titled "Walking Tall Coming Home." Patrick was very talented and ambitious. Patrick could build almost anything with his hands. Patrick loved his family and was always thinking of ways to make money to better their lives.

Patrick accepted Christ at an early age. He departed this life on Wednesday May 15, 2013.
