

Ms. Patsy Charise Clark

February 25, 1959 - November 29, 2019

In Loving Memory Of;

Patsy Charise Clark was born on February 25, 1959 in Chicago, Illinois to James Edward Clark, Sr. and Carlene Clark. Charise accepted Christ at an early age. She was saved and baptized under the leadership of Bishop G.E. Patterson where she also served as a faithful member of his choir.

Charise attended St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic School in Chicago, IL before finishing her education in the Detroit Public Schools system in 1977 from Frank Cody High School. After high school, Charise went to work for Tolly International, a claims processing corporation. In 1990, Charise decided to further her education and study court reporting when she enrolled in Dorthy Hall's School of Court Reporting. After completing her training, Charise became a full time court reporter in 1995 for 3rd Circuit Court, Frank Murphy Hall of Justice, Probate Court, and the Juvenile Court system where she worked until she retired in 2019 due to health reasons

Charise enjoyed watching the Discovery Channel. She also enjoyed gospel music and going to Chene Park for concerts but most of all Charise enjoyed startling people.
