“ I was blessed to have grown up 2 doors down from the Fowler family. They were the only "approved" family on the street by my parents to look after me in case of emergency. As was often the case, it was usually whenever I was locked out of the house. Mrs. Fowler always made me feel welcome. We would bake cookies, do crafts, homework, and just talk about life. Patti definitely used to spoil me and tell me how special I was all the time. I appreciate more than I knew at the time all that she did for me, and I love & miss her. With my greatest sympathy & love - Thancyi Calhoun

“ I was blessed to have grown up 2 doors down from the Fowler family. Mrs Fowler was the "approved" house that I could go to whenever the need arose, which was often after school whenever I was locked out of the house. Pattie provided a haven for me. We would bake cookies, do crafts, homework, and talk about life. She always went out of her way to make me feel special. To this day, and from now on, she will always hold a special place in my heart. With my deepest sympathies and gratitude - Thancyi Calhoun

“ To Aunt Pat,

My mom Grace and you were sisters not by blood but, by love of friendship (best friends).

I seen how Uncle Butch and you helped my family with love and just being there for us. I keep remembering my childhood and having you all around. You would bring so much joy to my mom and us. To lose a part of my Detroit family, it makes my heart feel pain.

I wish we could be there for you and the family. Uncle Butch go to here phone and read some of the things I texted her. Listen to some of the music I sent her.

*Love Always,
Deanna Quinn*

“ To The Family of Pattie Fowler,

Thank you, Tyrone (Butch) for allowing your wife to be my best friend and sister. We laughed and cried together... We did not have to talk every day but when we did we knew our hearts. She could tell when I wasn't feeling good and I could tell when she was not feeling good. I knew when not to say anything and when to say something.

There was one word that I would use with her and that word was stupid and as you know. She would say that's not nice and she would say GRACE. Down through the years, she began to say stupid and we would laugh so hard.

She told me now I understand why you used that word. Pat my best friend, my sister, and the person I loved so will forever be in my heart as you would say, I LOVE YOU MORE!

I Love you more sister and my life is for ever changed, for ever changed! With sadness in my heart, to know you are no longer a call away.

To Butch you can call us anytime.

Love You Family!
