

Mr. Paul Riley

December 2, 1943 - October 24, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Paul Lee Riley:

Paul Lee Riley was the sixth child of eleven children born to the union of Henry Riley and Louise Beamon Riley in Kosciusko, Mississippi, on December 2, 1943. Paul accepted Jesus Christ as his savior at an early age. His parents, Henry and Louise, brother, William and sister, Pearline preceded him in death.

Paul was educated in Mississippi Public Schools. He graduated from Salles High School. The Riley Family moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1961. After moving from Mississippi to Michigan, Mr. Riley was employed by Chrysler Corporation for over 30 years until he retired.

In 1969, Paul was united in matrimony to Sylvia D. Waller during which time they raised two children, Paula and Anthony. They later divorced. Paul met and married Emma Jean; this union lasted until the time of Emma Jean's passing. Overtime Paul Lee Riley met Marva Banks and to this relationship one daughter, Ebony Banks was born.

Paul was an avid fisherman. He loved sports and played checkers like a champ. He loved playing cards, gardening, family gatherings and the outdoors. Paul Lee Riley answered the Master's call on October 24, 2018 after years of failing health.
