

Mrs. Pearlee Brooks

June 29, 1936 - May 17, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Mrs. Pearlee Brooks was born June 29, 1936 to Rufus and Catherine Pearson in West, Mississippi. She was also educated in Freeport, Illinois School System where she developed her love for music. She loved different genres of music. From country, blues, to gospel. She also had a love for instruments as she enjoyed playing the piano, guitar, and also the tambourine.

In 1953, she met the love of her life, Walsh Brooks, and right after marriage made their move to Detroit, MI. To this union six children were born. As a housewife for many years Pearlee developed a love for cooking in the kitchen for her family, where she created many of her signature dishes including her peach cobbler, dressing, and lemon meringue pie (just to name a few).

Pearlee accepted Christ at a early age and became a faithful member of the House of God Church Family under the leadership of Bishop Donnell Foster Sr., until her decline in health. She truly enjoyed helping others, traveling, and spending time with her family.

On Friday May 17, 2024, Pearlee was called home to be reunited with her husband, Walsh Brooks. As well as her parents and grandchildren, Carlton Brooks and Kia Jones. She leaves to cherish in her memory six children: Charles Brooks of Freeport, Illinois; Debra Johnson, Valerie Brooks, Ava Brooks, Marvin Brooks, and Melissa Jones (Donnie Jones), all whom reside in Detroit, MI. Her siblings: Alice Collier, Mary Pearson, Rufus Pearson, Edward Pearson, all from Freeport, Illinois, and Preston Pearson who resides in Dallas, Texas. Twelve grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren, eight great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
