

Ms. Peggy Joyce Frazier

July 10, 1938 - November 20, 2015

The Life of Peggy Frazier:

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

-St. John 14:2-3

Peggy Joyce Frazier was born in Des Moines, Iowa. Her family moved to Detroit, Michigan in the early 1950's. She was the 11th child born to the union of the late Irene and Benjamin Frazier.

Preceding her in death were six brothers, Howard, Theodore, Henry, Oscar, Donald and Joe; and three sisters, Dorothy, Madonna and Bernice.

Peggy went to Michaels Elementary School and graduated from Southwestern High School in the year of 1958.

She received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at a very young age. Shortly after moving to Detroit, she started working as a cook and a waitress at Gus' Restaurant for many years, loving to serve and meet people.

Peggy was a very private person, but a loving and caring sister, sister-in-law, aunt and friend. Whenever she saw family members she would have the biggest smile (that smile lasted for weeks) and made sure she would always give something special, showing her kindness. She would talk and laugh about her friends at Restoration Towers, especially Arlene (who she called "Sis"). They were named Pepper and Salt, you could not separate them. Peggy loved singing, cooking, shopping, growing lovely plants and playing bingo. She also loved watching the ministries on TV, old cowboy movies and the Rich and Famous Homes. The two things that amazingly stood out about Peggy was her ability to remember everything. She wanted to be on time for everything, doctors appointments, taking her medications and charting everything down. All of doctors were very impressed and she knew it and would always smile. She was also a perfectionist when it came to cleaning her apartment and having everything done, so she could enjoy the rest of her day.

After living a blessed and challenging life, she was at peace, not fearing on November 20, 2015. She gracefully went home to her mansion in heaven that she always spoke of.

“ I'm terribly sorry for your loss, that's something that never really becomes easy to accept, so there's not much I can say, but God's words are powerful in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 there the bible tells us that God himself will swallow up death forever. God promises you will never ever feel this pain again really soon. Isn't that powerful? God loves the family of Robert and he loves Robert as well and you will see him soon. May God's words bring you comfort during this difficult time.

“ My deepest condolences go out to your family. It's very little that can take away from the pain we experience when we lose a loved one, but one thing that helps me find comfort and hopefully helps you too, is the the promises found in the Bible. Such as, Isaiah 25:8 where God promises to soon, "swallow up death forever" and to "wipe away the tears from all faces".

“ May you find peace during this difficult time as you reflect on how caring our heavenly father is towards those who mourn as well as the hope he extends to all. (Rev 21:4) I am so very sorry for your loss.
