

Mr. Percy James Goston

March 14, 1964 - March 26, 2018

In Loving Memory Of Percy James Goston:

Percy James Goston was born on March 14, 1964 in Sunflower, Mississippi to the proud parents of Percy Lee and Mariah Goston.

Percy attended Detroit Public Schools, earning a GED. At an early age Percy learned the meaning of a hard day's work.

Percy had a wonderful sense of humor, and would keep his family and friends laughing.

Percy's favorite place to go was the casino. He loved playing the slot machines or just watching his grandchildren play to pass the time in his day. Percy could also cook. He was known for his pan of loaded spaghetti, smothered with cheese. Percy loved to BBQ with his Dad and a big cookout with his brothers and sisters. Percy looked forward to his children visiting and spending time with them.

Percy was a loving, caring, and a dedicated father as well as a proud grandfather. As a friend he was trustworthy and easy going.

Percy shared a big part of his life with Cynthia Harris.

Percy was the fourth child out of eight children; with three sisters he learned to be respectful, patient and a good listener. Four brothers he learned to be strong, leadership and a good provider.

Percy was blessed to be cared for and loved by his mother, Mariah who preceded him in death (January 12, 2017). A sister, Martha and brother, Percy Jr. preceded in death. Percy made his transition on March 26, 2018.
