

Mrs. Phoebe H. Hampton

November 15, 1938 - May 26, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:

Phoebe Helene Hampton was born to Eleanor Keller and Y.C. Boddie on November 15, 1938. She was educated in Chicago, Illinois. She completed her degree in early childhood education. Phoebe married Maceo D. Hampton on April 19, 1962 and they remained lovingly together until her passing.

A lifelong servant of the Lord, Phoebe joined the church and was baptized in 1960. She dedicated her life to serving the Lord and supporting her husband as a Minister's wife.

Preceding her in death are her mother Eleanor Naylor and sister Jacqueline Greer. She is survived by her husband Maceo, brother William L. Hardy, Children: Nathaniel (Kelly), Natalie, Brian (Sylvia), Helene (Norman), Douglas, Lydia (Ron), and Jason (Jinnie). Eleven adorable Grandchildren and 17 beautiful Great-grandchildren, as well as tons of extended family and friends.

In the insightful fashion as only Phoebe could be, she has requested that her obituary be simple. As a result of a life well lived and loved, there are no words that could justly express the wonderful, caring, and understanding nature of Phoebe's heart. Phoebe has simply requested that each of you close your eyes and take a moment to reflect on the experience and love that you shared with her. THAT is her obituary. She prays it will bring a smile to your face and warmth to your heart.

Phoebe believed that this life was only temporary and looks forward to seeing her physical, as well as her spiritual family in the Kingdom of God.
