“ Extending my deepest sympathy to the Williams' Family in their loss of our Auntie Pollie. Auntie Pollie will always be with you all. Her quiet spirt shall always be a part of your lives. Please keep all the good times and memories held on Monica St. close to your heart. From the revolving doors of welcoming anyone into her home for Sunday dinner to her walking up and down the street making sure all the lawns were manicured neatly to her perfection. With a doubt, Auntie Pollie will forever be remembered in our hearts the highest regard.

Love,

“ Derra and Richard extends condolences to Dorothea, Cheryl and the entire Williams Family. We both have fond memories of Mrs. Williams from the many meals she cooked for those who worked downtown with Dorothea. On those days everyone could not wait until lunchtime when the meals were delivered to the building. Mrs. Williams knew her way around the kitchen and everything she cooked was good. Also we'll always cherish how pleasant both Mrs. Williams and Mr. Williams were as well. Heaven has gained another Angel (and a great cook too)! RIP Mrs. Williams

“ I have so many great memories with granny. Some of my favorites would be sitting on her front porch with her. I never had to call before I came over, I just pulled up. Granny would update me about how people were doing. She would talk about memories in the neighborhood. If I didn't eat she would remind me to get a plate. Granny's cooking was amazing. If I brought a friend over to her home, the next time I would see that her, she would always ask me how they were doing. Granny was strong but loving. I learned so much from granny of how to be a strong women. I will miss you and I have many more stories that are close to my heart.
