“ Portia you will be truly missed, you were truly love. I remember when your Family moved on Deacon and we bump into each other goin to the bus stop. It was on and popping then, I remember we were dating the same guy and didn’t even know it , until you seen him leaving my house. We had words, then we both thought about it and curse him out and drop him. We lost touch with each other but through the years we found each other and became prayer partners. Forever in a Day my Friend ❤️😭
