

Mrs. Queen Ester Little

August 13, 1944 - August 22, 2018

Her Journey:

“A true Queen does not have to worry about anyone taking her crown. She is a gift from God, and her crown is custom made.”

Queen Ester Little was born in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama on August 13, 1944 to James and Edna Gladney. She attended Tuscaloosa County Schools and graduated from Holt High School. Queen married the love of her life, Eddie W. Little Sr. on June 27, 1965. Three children were born to this union. They moved to Detroit, Michigan to begin their new life together. They were happily married for 40 years. He preceded her in death.

She was introduced to Christ at an early age and after receiving Him, was faithful and went on to live the life of a Missionary, First Lady and Church Mother. She was steadfast in numerous phases of ministry from singing to outreach. Where she saw a need, she catered to that need. During a particular point in time, she would help drive to pick up and transport young people to the church; feed them breakfast, minister and teach them, feed them dinner and drop them off at their homes. Her passion has always been to help those who were less fortunate.

Her love for God and her love for her family was unmatched; and everyone loved “The Queen.” She was well known for her excellent seamstress skills and her cooking...especially her hot buttery homemade yeast rolls!

On Wednesday, August 22, 2018, God called His Queen home.

“ What is lovely never dies, but passes into loveliness, grace was in her steps, my Sis. Queen was a beautiful and loving Sister never change always the same by the way I can agree with the family she made the best rolls ever. I will miss calling and talking to her, she was a peace maker not a peace breaker I loved my Sis. Queen, with love and hugs, Bootsy, Jackie, Ron and families, With thoughts of peace and courage.
