

Mrs. Queen Esther Roberts

April 10, 1931 - November 30, 2019

In Loving Memory Of;

Mrs. Queen E. Roberts was born on April 10, 1931 in Mer Rouge, Louisiana the seventh child born to James (Bosie) and Alberta (Dank) Olden.

She began her education journey in Mer Rouge playing varsity basketball and graduating from Morehouse High School in 1949. She confessed Christ at an early age and moved around to several states before settling in Detroit where she married Emmite Roberts, her soulmate, whom preceded her in death.

Queen had an entrepreneur spirit which led to starting several businesses, Mt. Royal Coffee Shop, Jazz West, Coloney Fried Chicken and she purchased her own City Cab #648. She worked untiringly and endlessly to support her family, while affording her the chance to offer jobs to others. She was a friend to everyone and generous to all.

Momma Queen was known best by having a safe house where you were never judged, always felt welcomed and knew you could get a warm meal.

God sent his angels for the Queen on the afternoon of November 30, 2019.
