“ I know from experience what it feels like to lose a mother, but your mother was very strong. It is not natural for people to endure illnesses that causes people to suffer, and we have to thank God and not question him when he decides to call home his children who are suffering from these illnesses. Thank God Queenie lived a long life and she saw her children become adults, and she was able to interact with her grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Tootie, Fuzzie, Ne Ne, Wee Tee, and Poo Poo, I love you all. I don't see you often, and I was glad to see you all yesterday. Poo Poo I missed you sweetie but I am coming to see you honey. After I found out your mother had passed, I was supposed to be there. Your Whitcomb family showed up and showed out because We are family through love, and love is stronger than a lot of biological and blood family! To be able to say, that I've known someone for almost 40 something years is something that this new generation will not be able to say! I say all of that to say I love you all stay strong, and be therefore each other! Please know that your mother is rejoicing in Heaven living her best new life, free from pain, sorry, hurt, stress, sorrow and worry! She has no recollection of the pain she was in. Until I see you all again, take care of yourself. Tootie, I love you honey, and I was especially glad to see you! Love Karen White better known as Karry...Forever Whitcomb!
