“ My Cousin Quessie was the best cousin I have ever known. He always treated me with respect and treated me like a true family member. I will truly miss him. Words can not express the sadness I fell in my heart about his passing. We talked about a lot of things in our lives. He really cared about family and always made a point to call me as often as possible. .It's hard for me to think about me speaking with him lest than a week before he passed. I love you and rest in peace.
