“ I met Quibaraí when we were 9 years old. We grew apart but I always thought that we would reconnect at some point. He was a great guy and I’m always going to wish that we had of stayed in touch.

Prayers to his family and friends. He was a bright light in this dreary world.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Q since I started in the casino in 2005. He was always so patient during the time he was training me as to what was expected of a security officer. He just had that laid back demeanor that made it very easy to ask questions or advice from him in the years following. But at the same time if there was an issue with someone you always knew that he was right there to help you. As they say " don't let the smooth taste foul you". So when he ask me to join the original group of officers to open the night club, I jumped at it because I knew things would be handled the way they needed to be. I can say without reservation that he was one of the greatest bosses and I also thought of him as a friend. The loss of Q is a loss that so many people will never get over including myself. It was my honor and privilege to know him and my thoughts and prayers go out to his friends and family. John Warren “ Quibarai (Q) and I were so cool. We used to have these random conversations and I remember one day we were texting and he was a little short with his response and I was like well I wanna just asking. Next thing I know he sent me this pic that he was at the game. I just cracked up because I was good to get any response when he was at a game but he rocked with those Lions. That's just how loyal of a man he was. You'll forever be missed my friend. Rest easy.
