

Mr. R.D. Luckie Jr.

December 26, 1947 - January 19, 2014

His Journey:

R.D. Luckie Jr. was born on December 25, 1947, in Birmingham, Alabama, to Arzell and R.D. Luckie Sr. (both deceased). He was the youngest of three children and went by the nickname "Buddy."

He attended Central High School (Detroit, MI) and graduated in 1965. After joining the US Army, he was united in matrimony to Carolyn Gamble in 1968. During his time in the military, he served in the Vietnam War and the Persian Gulf, and was known as "Sand Dog." He also completed studies at Wayne State University and retired from the US Army in 1991, as a Military Police for the National Guard. On December 20, 2013 he confirmed Christ as his Savior.

He will be remembered as a cool and friendly person that easily made friends and was always willing to help others. He enjoyed cooking and would feed anyone that was hungry...even strangers. He loved his two sons and grandchildren very much and also enjoyed spending time with his cousin and best friend Kendrick Hardaway.

He will be greatly missed and remembered by many.
