“ So where I start I mean there are so many memories that Ralph has left for everyone. I mean I remember him biting my head when I was a little girl; losing me at the state fair (which was his favorite to always bring up); to stories he'd tell me about his past when I would drive him to the credit union, play lottery, or to grab a bite to eat. Thanks for having the last name that eventually inspired me to name your great-grandson "King" as his first name. I mean just Thanks for all you've done. Your frankness and cliches that I found beyond hilarious, (and I even use some of them 😊) will be missed. You will be missed! I love you!
