“ Randall was like a little brother to me when I stayed in Detroit with Aunt Juliette. I remember walking him and Kenny to school a few blocks away and then dashing to catch the bus to Tappan Junior High. I saw him a few years ago and he handed me a bag of Detroit made snacks. A small gesture, but one I will remember. Go in peace Randall. The battle is over the rest is earned. I won't forget you, Cuz!

“ Randall was at a time my little brother. I lived with Aunt Juliette for a while. He and Kenny were very young, and I remember walking them to school each day, then running to catch a bus over to Tappan Junior High. I remember him being such a sweet little boy. We shared a lot during that time. I will miss you Cuz, but the struggle is over. Your family all loved you. Go in peace with God.

“ You were always a man of few words and knew how to make a room laugh with your one-liners. The world is not gonna feel the same without you, Uncle. I love ya. Rest In Peace.
