Ran, my dear baby brother you are missed. We were visiting mom's grave and we spoke about how offal it was to have both of you make your transition so close together. Two people we loved so much left us. We never got a chance to meet our niece, and you had just left here spending a week with mom. We love you so much there was only one Ran, to turn around and come back to the funeral. Everyone, mother's family her sister's, and other close family got hotels or stayed with someone. Ran you knew where you were staying, in mother's bedroom. Mother made this extremely clear. Ran stayed with us until everyone was gone and he stayed a few more days to make sure we were OK. Ran was special in a way I can't find words that could adequately describe him. He was funny, kind, sweet, don't make a mistake he will handle you quickly, a alfa male, protective and a Awesome loving funny guy. If you met him you would never forget him. Ran your gone, I can't see, touch or talk with you but I know if I keep those special memories in my head and the loving times we, the family had in my heart you will never die. My brother you are in my head and heart. You and moma are greatly missed. Love you Ran always, your big sis Mary.)
