

Mr. Randolph Scott Whittaker

May 21, 1949 - October 15, 2016

Celebrating The Life Randolph Scott Whittaker:

On May 21, 1949 Belle and O'neil Whittaker received a blessing from God, a baby boy they named Randolph. He was the 5th oldest of nine children born in Clinchco, Virginia (five have preceded him in death.)

Randolph Scott Whittaker was educated in the Clinchco, Virginia school system before deciding to relocate to Detroit, Michigan where he met Carol Duckworth. From this relationship a beautiful baby girl was born who they affectionately named Carla.

Randolph was well known to others as "Shorty" for his small stature and even though he was such a small man he carried a heart of a Lion.

Randolph found a career at Detroit Steel, where he was employed for 25 years. Outside of his years of employment, he also enjoyed carpentry and socializing with friends.

In early October 2016, Randolph accepted Christ as his Savior under the leadership of Elder James Gibbs.

Randolph departed this life on October 15, 2016 at 7:45 p.m.
