“ Most of my fondest memories of Randy are him working on my car cracking jokes, but always ending up, telling me exactly what was wrong with my car and not overcharging me for repairs I didn't need. He was a straight up guy. One of Randy's most famous lines that he would say to me, was throw me like you know me which meant he needed some cash. And I would and say I'll throw you across the street we both would laugh and then I would give him some money. I'm really going to miss that the most. Love you man Rest in Peace.
