

Mr. Ray Manuel Ware

September 23, 1939 - March 5, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Ray Manuel Ware was born on September 23, 1939 to the union of Raymond Ware and Cleola Williams (both preceded him in death). Ray, or “Manuel,” as his family called him, grew up in Detroit, MI. He was a product of the Detroit Public School District and attended Pershing High School. After graduating, Ray joined the United States Air Force where he received an honorable discharge.

After his military experience, he met and married Marilyn Grayer. Together they had two daughters, Roxanne and Carla. Ray was employed by the United States Postal Service where he later met and married Sandra Wallace. Together they celebrated 39 years of marriage. While employed there for 44 years, Ray earned many awards and promotions and was well-liked by numerous co-workers. In his spare time he enjoyed watching sports and westerns, playing cards, listening to music, reading the newspaper at Belle Isle, and spending time with his father-in-law, Woodrow Wallace, Sr. (who preceded him in death) by talking, fishing, and taking road trips.

Ray was a good husband, father, provider, and friend who was always there for those in need. His strong work ethic was instilled in his children, and he was extremely proud of his family. He could be quite charming and was an animated storyteller whose long-term memory for the most minute details was impressive and enviable.

He is survived by his loving wife Sandra Ware, his children: Roxanne Towler,

Carla Ware-Parker, and Larry Wallace, his siblings: Larry Ware (Hilda) and Laketa Tomlinson (preceded him in death), his grandchildren: Nicole Ahmed (Gamal), Harris Foster, III, Jade Parker Smart (Daniel), Lena Parker, Starlene Turner (Mario, Sr.), and Tamiko Collins, his great-grandchildren: Naima Ahmed, Winter Parker Smart, Mario Turner, Jr., Sophia Hernandez, and Niylah Turner, a very special niece (like a daughter) Tiffany Wallace, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
