

Mr. Rayshan Love Moore

November 20, 1988 - April 8, 2014

Rayshan Love Moore was born November 20, 1988 in Detroit, Michigan, in union of Iron Moore and Stephanie Smith. Rayshan was the eldest of two children. Rayshan was baptized as a small boy. In his youth, Rayshan attended Saint Timothy's Episcopal Church in Detroit, Michigan. Family and close friends often referred to Rayshan with much love and affection as "Shan" or "Luke De Ville." Rayshan was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system.

Rayshan had a wonderful ritual - he would wake each morning and get on his Facebook Page to greet his many cousins and friends with "Good morning my Lords and my Graces." This was his way of reaching out to let everyone know how he was doing. Rayshan was twenty-five years old when he passed however most would consider he had the heart of an "old soul." Rayshan's passion was collecting "old school" movies and music from the "70s" and "80s" with his mother. Rayshan was an avid gamer. Rayshan was always one of the first among family and friends to own the latest gaming system. Rayshan enjoyed the company of his devoted friends who would come from Detroit to Farmington Hills as often as they could to play Xbox and watch Wrestle Mania. Rayshan also loved sitting quietly - in deep thought in his "lazy boy" chair while gazing at the beautiful scenery from his bedroom window.

“ To the Moore Family-

During this time of difficulty, may you find comfort by considering the finest basis of encouragement, God's Word the Bible. May you find comfort by considering Revelation 21:4, where God states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
