

Mrs. Rebecca Jackson

October 6, 1927 - September 11, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Rebecca Jackson:

Rebecca Jackson affectionately known as Becky and lovingly known as the "Worlds Greatest Grandma" was born October 6, 1927 in Meridian, Mississippi. She was the second of four children born to James Edward and Lillian Williams all whom preceded her in death. She was educated in the Meridian School system. The family relocated to Detroit, Michigan in 1945.

Becky worked for a Rag Factory and Detroit Diesel for many years, she retired from Fleetwood on January 1, 1988.

Becky married the late Arthur Jackson Sr. in 1943. To this union three children were born Martha Ann Page, Arthur Jackson Jr. (who preceded her in death), and Dorothy Jean Jackson.

After retiring, Grandma devoted all of her time to raising everyone's babies. She also enjoyed cooking, watching her soap operas, playing her Blues cd's, drinking wine coolers, watching sports on television and her Super Bowl Parties.

Becky loved family, her own and the extended families she picked up along the way. She had a special bond with neighbors, friends and anyone she came into contact with.

After her health began to fail Becky quietly made her transition in her home that she loved dearly with her daughter Martha Ann at her bedside.
