

Mother Rebertha Sirmans

April 18, 1924 - August 5, 2014

On April 18, 1924 in Lanier County Georgia, a beautiful baby girl was born to the growing family of Samuel Dennis and Minnie Zola "Carter" Roberts. They decided to name this darling little girl Rebertha.

Rebertha received her secular education from the Lanier County Georgia Board of Education and her spiritual foundation from Carter's Chapel Methodist Church of which she joined when she was very young. The Roberts family was blessed, for there were now five daughters, Rebertha being the youngest. Then God blessed them with a son. God only let them keep the son a couple of years before he called him home. Rebertha became the youngest again. Afterward God blessed the Roberts family with two more sons and two more daughters.

In 1939 Rebertha united in holy matrimony with Henry L. Sirmans, to this union three children were born Sam, Bertha, and Roy (Abdul).

In 1947 Rebertha and Henry decided to move to Detroit. They united with the Cyrene Temple Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of U.S. Goldsby, Pastor. She worked with the nurses guild until she left Cyrene Temple. Rebertha was a great mother and house wife. She loved to cook and sew. Her home was always open to her children's friends. Later she discovered her love for horses and then casinos.

Family members that preceded her in death, her mother and father Sam and Minnie Roberts, sisters Ruby L. Houston, Sammie L. Miller, and Ada B. Miller, brothers E.J. Roberts and Enoch B. Roberts.
