

Mr. Reginald Daniel Edwards

May 25, 1984 - February 24, 2019

Reginald's Life and Legacy:

Reginald D. Edwards was born on May 25, 1984 in Detroit, Michigan to Audrey (Edwards) Barnett and Reginald Green. As a child, Reginald was given the name "Duke" from his granddad (Daniel) and Noodle from friends, which followed him throughout his lifetime.

Reginald confessed Christ at an early age.

Reginald received his education through the Detroit Public Schools system. Reginald received a trade in roofing.

Reginald's significant other, Danielle Parker was the love of his life. Reginald was blessed with one daughter, Madison Y. Edwards (3) and son, Reginald Edwards Jr. (1). His children were the center of his world.

Reginald will always be remembered as a son, father, brother and friend.

Reginald enjoyed working with his hands. He worked as a roofer for over ten years. He loved old cars, gym shoes, watching his nephews play football, outings with his children and hanging with family and friends. Reginald had a big heart and always put family first and he loved to joke around. He was the soul and backbone of his family.
