In Loving Memory Of

Reginald Farmer, Jr. was born on July 17, 1970 to the union of Reginald Farmer, Sr and Patricia Farmer whom both preceded him in death. Reggie was baptized and received Christ at an early age.

“ Happy 54th birthday. The girls and I miss you so much. On July 4th I welcomed our first grandson into the world. Wish that you were here to meet him. Always in our heart. Your "Pretty Lady" aka Mrs. Make It Happen

Your Pretty Lady - July 17, 2024 at 09:32 PM

“ Well I'm just finding out about your death.. this is heartbreaking I still have your messages where you called me your baby girl, brown eyes and the woman you wanted to marry.. I can't believe someone murdered you, this makes no sense as I hope to find answers on why this happened. We first met in 92 at Club UBQ and you tracked me down after the club as we never exchanged numbers you were the most romantic man I ever met and dated we spent countless nights at the Atheneum, watching Martin and eating at Fishbones it was our spot, you were always surprising me and always remembered my favorites without me reminding you ... I still have the ring you gave me, so many memories we had together I can't even name them all but you were a very important part of my life and my heart. I will never forget you and I forgive you❤️ Rest In Power you'll always be remembered, thank you for loving me it truly was a special time in our lives.🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️

“ Farmer you will definitely be missed!! not knowing the day I saw you that you would be gone the very next day. You gave me my wake up call for work and texted me to make sure I made it to work just hours prior to you being called home. You always had encouraging words for me without filter. To the family who he talked about often I will continue to pray for you during this time.
Rest up baby, love you always

“ My best memory of Reggie wasn't one particular time or event. It was the everlasting feeling of love and support that he made me feel every time we talked.

I'm so blessed to have been given such a loving Godfather to help encourage and support me on my journey this far.

I will not choose to remember how you left but instead some of the last words you left me with.

“Appreciate you and I Love You and Carter So So Much know that!”

And we love you too! Always will!

May your spirit Rest In Peace now and forever!
