“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all the friends, family, and loved ones who knew Mr. Reggie L. Smith Sr. I pray that during this time you all are comforted, and strengthen in the knowledge that he is with Our Heavenly Father! As we grieve the loss of brother Reggie I pray that through our sadness, we also rejoice in his life, and in the knowledge that he is no longer in pain, and that he is now resting in peace!

“ Debra & Family,

Every morning when I arrived at work, Reggie was usually the first person I would see. He would drive me nuts with every crazy thing he could think of saying, just to make me laugh. Sometimes he would bring me a cup of coffee to start my work day, and simply remind me, "Monica, if you need anything...just call me, I will help you".

Throughout the week I would remind him to "Behave himself" at least a million times- however, he only listened a few times! But one thing that impressed me the most about his character, was the way he made a point of coming back to the front desk later, to make sure he never offended me in anyway, with his jokes. Although I would laugh and say, "Get outta here Reggie", I always appreciated that small gesture from his heart.

My mother was born the month of April and died in October also, just 7 short years ago. Ironically, her funeral was at this same place, on almost the same day, November 6th. So this is automatically a time for me to appreciate those whom God has placed in my life for whatever season, to bless me.

Debra, I will always be grateful for you and your brother's kindness. You have been a wonderful example of a loving sister, who always looked out for your brother. The bible says to be careful how you entertain strangers, that they may be angels, unaware.

I thank God for the blessing you and your brother have been to so many, and for the careful and thoughtful way his demeanor blessed everyone he knew.

I offer my condolences and prayer to you and your family. I will miss old crazy Reggie.

I am pretty sure he is already gettin' on God's nerves! (lol)

“ I am shocked and saddened to hear of Reggie's passing. Not only was he my neighbor for many years, I considered him a friend. Saw him a few months ago and we laughed, joked and talked about old times. His sister Deb did such a great job taking care of him. So sorry for your loss. I will keep you and the family lifted in prayer.

“ Reggie was a gentle and kind person. He was my business client for 3 years, but whenever I had the opportunity to sit and talk with him it always felt like I was with family. He loved The Lord Jesus Christ. Our conversations always included talking about how good God is and how he felt blessed in spite of his physical challenges. I always left Reggie's presence feeling uplifted and encouraged.

To Ms. Deborah Rose; Reggie's loving sister, family and friends -- May the peace of God surround and comfort you today and in the days to come. Reggie has run the race (his life) with perseverance; he kept the faith, he has finished his course and received his reward! Rest well my friend, it was a pleasure to have known you!

Brother I'm so lonely without you here. I like quiet, but now it's too quiet!!! It's comforting in knowing that one day We will SING AND SHOUT THE VICTORY together! Amen! Sister Deborah.
