Tribute Wall

VT

“ The Lowe and Baker families have my sincerest condolences. A few days ago my thoughts went back to my elementary days....and long story short Renee Lowe and Gale Baker entered my thoughts. They are cousins. I reflected on how gracefully and with titanium strength Renee dealt with her episodes of sickle cell crisis. And, thoughts of her persisted in my mind until I put her name in the Google search engine, and the return list had this online tributewall for a Renee Lowe that was in the right age group. Looking at the picture, I do believe this is the lady who attended Britemeyer(???) Elementary in Detroit and was in my cohort class.

*I share that Renee was always friendly and kind to me, I who was an introverted young girl at that time. She was intelligent and did well academically despite her mountainous health challenges in life. I always admired her and had great empathy for her. I'm saddened to know that her presence on Earth is no longer. I pray that she is resting and healed in the comfort of Jesus Christ. Amen. ~~~
