

Mr. Reuben John Hopkins Jr.

October 18, 1932 - April 15, 2014

Mr. Reuben John Hopkins was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on October 18, 1932 to Reuben Hopkins Sr. and Minnie Lee Taylor.

He enlisted and served in the United States Army in 1950 and was honorably discharged in 1953. He worked for Koenig Fuel Supply Co. for 25 years where he retired in 1997. Only to come out of retirement, and work at Greektown Casino and retired after nine years of service.

Reuben was a simple man in the fact that it did not take much to make him happy. He loved listening to jazz and classical music and his favorite pastimes were watching a movie from his extensive collection and watching a game of hockey. He was selfless because he always thought of others first; especially when it came to his family, there were nothing that he would not do for them.

You could identify his passion and love for people in his everyday casual conversations with friends, colleagues and even a few he didn't know as well. Reuben was a devoted husband, father and grandfather, leader, lover, and a charismatic wonder to mankind in general.

Reuben and Dorothy " Lee" Hopkins were united in holy matrimony in 1978.

“ Pops...He was the 2nd father for me. Never a day went by without him giving me a kiss on the cheeks or giving me a lecture on life. But never a time I could say..don't want to hear it cause you had no choice but to be still and listen. My #2 Pops you are one in a million and will be missed. Heaven can't wait for your grand entrance.

“ Working with Reuben was the best 6 years of my life. He joked with us, and gave me sound advice. It hurts that he is no longer with us but The Lord has called home a truly remarkable man. May the bless his family.

“ Dot, you and Ruben were the first people I met when I moved on Outer Drive. You were my neighbors and you both became my friends. We had many many conversations over "the fence". You watched my child grow up. You played with and prayed for her as much as I did. I will truly miss Ruben. You are always in my prayers. We love you. Barbara and Bethanie.

It was my honor to have worked with Reuben for 30 years at Koenig. He was the only man in my life that taught me the true meaning of compassion. Rest in peace old friend.
