“ I know that Grandma Childs is in heaven with the Lord. She is free from all of the pains and concerns of this world. I do, however, miss her so very much. I got to share her for 44 years and never thought that I'd have to say goodbye to someone who means so very much to me. I was blessed to share two very wonderful visits with her when she came out here to California to visit and was looking forward to a third this summer. Instead, I look forward to being greeted by her open arms some day in heaven. Until then, I will enjoy the wonderful memories of the times spent with my beloved Grandma Childs in my heart.

Rest peacefully Grandma. You are very much missed and loved.

God bless you and take you into His arms. I love you, miss you, and hurt so very much - but know that you're in a better place.

“ I will love Mother forever. She has been an integral part of my life and I will never forget what she's taught me by example and by words and deeds. She's my children's grandmother and the most loving and inspirational person I've ever known. There will be tears and sadness that she's not here with us but joy in our hearts that she's where she wants to be. A life truly well lived. I pray for comfort to the Childs' family as they say goodbye to Mother.

“ Dear Family: There are few things in life (if any) more painful to us than the loss of a family member, especially a beloved mother. That pain can be almost unbearable, striking the core of our very being, and we wonder how we can move on without them in our lives. It is at times like this when we need comfort and support from our family, our friends and others like me who, although not knowing you personally, still care. But most important, we need assurance and hope from our Grand Creator that will give us the strength and the courage to move on with our lives confident of better days ahead. Jehovah God assures us of those better days ahead for he promises soon to ‘swallow up death forever’ (Isaiah 25:8) to resurrect our loved ones who are ‘sleeping’ in death (John 5:28, 29, 11:11-14) and to “wipe out every tear from our eyes” because “... mourning, nor outcry, nor pain will be anymore”. Jehovah promises that He’s making “all things new” and not to worry because ‘these words are faithful and true’. (Revelation 21:4, 5). What a beautiful hope and future Jehovah has placed before us, and if we will put faith in God's promises, then our sorrow will not be unrelenting for he assures us again at Titus 1:2 that all he has promised will come true. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Life on earth is never long enough but your mother's life on earth was a blessing to hundreds. I know she was a blessing to me. May God comfort you and keep you in this time. I love you all with the love of Jesus Christ. God Bless, Carol Fleming and family.##imported-begin##Carol Fleming##imported-end##
