“ I am so sorry for your loss. Hebrews 11:1 "Faith is the assured expectation of things hoped for, the evident demonstration of realities though not beheld". Until God's promise of a resurrection becomes a reality, may Jehovah wrap you and your family in his arms of comfort and peace. Mr. Dorris has the opportunity to resurrected; not in this wicked world, in paradise on earth that God promised in the beginning. It will be a reality. While you wait for this wonderful promise to occur, I hope you can draw peace and comfort from the memories you've stored in your heart on Mr. Dorris. These are some scriptures that give me comfort. Revelations 21:3-5; Isaiah 26:19; and Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ To the Dorris Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr. Dorris. Although I didn't know him personally, I can still relate to the distress of losing a loved one. Death causes us much pain and sorrow, and we are helpless in the face of it. But our Loving Creator (Psalm 83:18)is aware of that and has, therefore, promised to destroy death...forever!!! (1 Corinthians 15:26, Psalm 89:48). Our loved ones that we have lost to death are not forsaken. God has promised a resurrection to life for all those sleeping in the memorial tombs (graves) (John 5:28,29). That time is yet before us, but is not far away (Acts 24:15) When that happens, death will NEVER haunt,hunt, nor hurt us again (Isaiah 25:8) for God has promised us at Revelation 21:4..."he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more..." May you find comfort in God's promises soon to be fulfilled (2 Corinthians 1:2,3,4) Have faith in Him for He cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
