“ To the Brooks family, please accept my sincere condolence. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Brooks family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Brooks family, I'm sorry to hear about the death of your loved one Mr. Brooks. I'm writing to encourage you with the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14)"If an able body man dies, can he live again. This is a hope that is held out to all mankind. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Thank you Mervin for being my good friend at Belmont Nursing Home. My mom and I will miss you dearly. You and I shared the same birthday! (Feb 18 - you were my Birthday buddy!) I enjoyed talking with you, and looking at your family pictures, which you were always so proud of. Thank you for saying your special prayers for some of my other friends in need (when I asked you to). We will miss seeing you outside on the patio this summer. My mom (Margaret Damman) was talking to God yesterday out loud, in her own way, asking God to help you. You will always continue to be in my prayers. God will reward you in Heaven for all of your accomplishments here on Earth. It's good to know that you are no longer in pain.

Your friend,

Diane Laney###imported-begin##Diane Laney###imported-end##
