“ Mo,
Really sorry about your sister-in-law. I don't like to use the phrase "sorry for your loss", because when you loose something, you don't know where it is. But from hearing people talk about her, she's not lost, you know where she is. I hope that came out right. God Bless. Henderson##imported-begin##Jason Henderson##imported-end##

“ Dear Debbie, Gregory and Brittney
Our prayer for you is that you will cling to the memories of your sister and let them find their way to heal you. The love and laughter, the joy in the togetherness you shared, will make you strong. Keep your heart beating with the loving memories and trust in your faith in God to guide you through

Your sister was a christian and now she is with the Lord. She has left you that assurance to hold in your heart forever.

We love you

“ Rev Sowell may be gone from this place but not our hearts. For as many funerals that she's attended she knows the sorrow we are feeling for her. She would want us to rejoice in knowing that we know that she is in a better place. I myself am elated to know that she will be called before me in metting the Lord in the air before those of us that still remain(1 Thess.4:13-18). We all know she deserves. She worked for the Lord at all times and His praise was continually in her mouth (Psalm 34:1). She was a true example of a Disciple. She embarked on teaching the lost and found. Physically no one is ever ready to depart from the earthly realm, yet Spiritually she was ready. Rev. Vaughnie Sowell will be missed. May God bless you and console you until you see her again.
