“ Our family would like to express our sincere condolences to the family of Rhonda Harris. It is our prayer that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, consoles you during your time of mourning (2 Corinthians 1:2-4). We also hope that you can find comfort in the words of Jesus at John 5:28, 29 - "those in the memorial tombs (or grave) will...come out." This is our hope for Rhonda as well as our dead loved ones in the near future.

With deepest sympathies,

The Wesley Family

“ *Dear Rhonda,
I remember you planting beautiful flowers in your garden, your warm smile and kind spirit -
- teaching minds and touching hearts; the happy Christmas cards you sent wishing peace, abundant blessings and love. I wish you restful peace, neighbor, and God's abundant love.*

“ Hi Aunt Rhonda !!! I only met you last August but your presence was like something I would never, ever, forget. I'm sad that I was only able to meet you once, but I love you a lot! You literally lightened up a room with your soft voice and sweet smile. You fought for a long time and now the battle is over. You are with our Father so the pain is gone. I love you and I love Uncle Leon, he is amazing. I know you're smiling down on him. I love you! -Chimdi Marcus
