“ My family lived down the block from the Harrises on Glynn Court. Richard was one day older than me. He was my classmate at Roosevelt, later at Cass Tech. I would see him at some of the CT reunions but not at the most recent one. I was always happy to see him, however.

Last Friday, I flew home to Detroit. I was out with a friend, and I said, “Let’s go see the house.” We turned off Dexter and headed east on Glynn. Went past my house. When we got close to Wildemere, I told my friend that the Harrises had lived there and Richard was my classmate. Later, when we got to her house, I looked at Facebook and saw the notice from the Class of 1971 page. I saw that Richard’s funeral had been the day before. I was stunned.

My condolences to all.

“ I want to send my condolences to the Harris family. I can remember Ricky coming to one of my shows at the toy box and and him and his brother David were out there dancing in the aisle. Wait like they was in the juvenile. Thank you, Ricky for your support and you would truly be missed. This is your cousin, Ronald Anderson

“ In times such as these, my imagination goes to places that helps me deal with the loss. I'd like to think heaven being a little bit more brighter as you cross over with that Smile. Rest Well Bro-in-Love. Got another reason to try and make it.
