“ To my big brother who gave out love to all his sister and brothers he was a very remarkable big brother who love to educate anybody and everybody. if you would listen to him he would always tell you to do the things right in your life will be much easier .But on the other hand my big brother never practice what he preach. I have so much love for my big brother for stay on me made me finish my education become a pretty good citizen and a very good person god have bless me and my family to of had him in our life. I will the miss the long lecture on what i would be doing next in life. love always his little brother Derrick Bernard Sanders Sr.{ May he rest in peace }

Mioko Dyer - April 16, 2016 at 09:07 PM

Rick was my best friend. He was always willing to help and teach. I appreciated his guidance, and he was willing to listen and accept suggestions on improving himself. I've missed our long talks and special outings.

I will never forget him, and no other man has lived up to him as a friend and mate.
