“ I always think of you around this time of year. You would send me a birthday card and a Christmas card written in your beautiful penmanship. Then I'd call you and we would talk for a long time and catch up.

Working with you was a joy. Listening to you recite old sayings and sing these funny little-known ditties made me wonder where did you learn them. It seemed like a spirit of a wise elderly man was inside you!

I wish I had called more often and I'm sorry we never got to do the Riverwalk together. So, this introverted homebody is trying to do better now.

*Happy Heavenly Birthday!
Love,
Ethrah*

“ Robbie,

You were such an amazing person, an even more amazing friend! The positive impact that you've had on my life over these last 18 years speaks volumes to how wonderful person you really were. You were always giving in your love, advice, and wisdom. I am glad to have known you, it was a blessing indeed. I didn't realize that my last visit with you in December would be our last. We were so excited to see each other again and just get caught up, as friends often do when one moves away from home. I'm going to miss that big smile, your warm big brotherly embrace, and our long chats. Lord knows I picked up many of your ways because I can talk an hour non-stop about the same thing lol!!! You are going to be missed dearly my friend, but you will always remain in my heart. My thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time. May God give them comfort and peace during this difficult time. I love you my friend!

“ How cool is it that the same God that created oceans, mountains and galaxies, looked at our Bob Ben and thought the world needed one of him, too! I like to think he's on his journey to see Doris and Linda again. Blessings and Love to you Leslie. You know we are here for you. Your sister Kathleen and brother friend Jesse Smith

“ Rob,

You were my close friend, brother, and best man at my first wedding. You could always be depended upon--during thick or thin. I remember our days working at NBD and all the good times we had back in the '80's, and how intelligent, meticulous, and danged funny you were. You had such a way with words and kept everyone laughing. I'm so glad I was able to see and talk to you recently and am so sorry the world has lost such a great man and human being. You were a special and talented brother who was greatly loved and who will be sorely missed. I've lost a great friend.

Rest in Peace, My Brother.
