“ No word can truly describe the sadness I may have had upon learning of your departure. A tear in my heart! I saw all the good times we had together in France. Music business gave us the opportunity to meet each other thanks to our common drummers friends. I thank them for having shared your personality that deeply :) These many meetings and musical moments, that were more magical than each other, are now marked for ever. Everyone can witness this for sure. Each of us in France will remember your constant good humour, your devastating smile and laughter, and your characteristic accented voice! I will also add your natural kindness that made you a "beautiful person" as we dream of meeting. I've had that chance and I'm sure everyone you've ever known shares that thought.
Rest in peace my friend. You who was so good must already have an "All Access VIP Pass" like the one you were wearing forever on earth! :)
We miss you so much Coop'. RIP
