“ The family of Edward W. Crosby is sorry for your loss. We had to come to pay our respects. Uncle Bobby's exploits were legendary. He was the most colorful of all of my seven uncles and aunts. I don't know if he knew ow much of an inspiration he was to me, personally, but I remember when someone tried to get away with giving me some no good checks to pay for totally my car. I called Uncle Bobby and the next thing I knew he was begging to make good on those checks. It was memories like that, along with the tales my dad told of how smart Uncle Bobby was that continue to inspire me today. May he rest in peace as his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews pickup from where he left off.

“ *To Victoria and Family:
We are holding you in our prayers, knowing that it is only God that can fill the deep void you are feeling right now. Just know that weeping endures for a night but you will find joy in all the memories and good times you had with your Dad. God is your strength when you're tired and we will be your friend when you need us to lean on.*

*Our Deepest Sympathy,
Your Case Management Family at Blue Shield*
