

Mr. Robert Maynard Dent, III

October 16, 1957 - August 28, 2021

Robert Maynard Dent III was born on October 16, 1957, in Detroit, MI to the union of Robert Dent Jr. and Beatrice Horton. Maynard grew up in Detroit and attended the Detroit Public School System.

From a young age, Maynard proved to be a talented artist with an eye for detail which would later aid him in his work. Maynard also lived and breathed music. He spoke and moved in rhythm and loved ballroom dancing. As a young child, he played the flute and though he could not read music, he learned to play by ear. Through his love for Jazz and Rock, he taught himself guitar and formed a band in his teen years. He also frequented jazz clubs in his youth.

Maynard worked as a security officer, welder and worked over 10 years with General Motors. He also worked various construction and home renovation jobs with Fox Hills. He was a skilled handyman and was always looking for ways to improve something. In 1981, he met his love Mary Richardson, together they had two children: Robert and Jazmyn.

Maynard was the definition of cool. He had a unique sense of style heavily influenced by the 1930s and always wore his signature fedora. He was charming and adventurous and made friends everywhere he went. He was always looking to have a good time and considered himself to be life of the party. He could brighten up the mood with his humor and charm and he liked to live life to the fullest. He was an amazing father, grandfather, brother, and friend who will be missed dearly.

Maynard departed this world on August 28, 2021. He was preceded in death by his parents Robert Jr. and Beatrice Dent. He is survived by his children Robert IV, Jazmyn, Granddaughter Mahalia; Lifelong friend Genenee; Siblings Ramona, Maurice (Lois), Rayford (Nicole) and a host of loving nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
