

Mr. Robert Lee McGhee

February 22, 1936 - December 18, 2024

In Loving Memory of

Robert Lee McGhee was born in Montgomery, Alabama on February 22, 1936 to Milton and Mary Jane McGhee who preceded him in death.

Being one of the oldest siblings, his parents depended on him to assist with the daily task of working in the fields, helping out around the house and assisting with his younger brothers and sisters. Being reared in this way taught him to be responsible and accountable for his life decisions.

Robert was very proud to be born in Montgomery, Alabama which is the pinnacle of the Civil Rights Movement where Rosa Parks and Martin Luther King made history.

Becoming a young man in the south was not easy. His goal was to attain a better life for his future so he met and married his wife Patricia of 57 years and moved to Michigan where the opportunity to be fruitful was granted. Being employed in many different areas including the old Silvercup Bakery, it was realized that this was not his passion. The fervor for him was fixing things, especially automobiles. Working in various garages around the city of Detroit with his brother Tom gave him a sense of fulfillment and contentment and he would even work on cars, snowblowers, etc at his home. In doing this he kept himself busy and happy.

Motorcycle riding was his favourite thing to do. Travelling across country alone, or with other bikers brought him great joy and pleasure. It was commonplace to see him riding on his cycle around the neighbourhood. He was definitely a motorcycle enthusiast.

Robert's song ended on December 18, 2024 at apx 1:30 am, but his melody will play on and live in the hearts of his wife Pat, his children Roderick and Priscilla and 8 grandchildren. He also leaves to mourn his loss his brother Thomas (Mattie) and sister Catherine (Roy) and numerous relatives and friends He will join his siblings who passed on before him, Willis, Moses, James, Daniel, Davidson, Solomon, Bessie and Mozelle and his Eldest son Robert Jr. to be reunited in everlasting love for eternity.
